

Contents

Introduction	viii
--------------------	------

Part I: Preparing for Your Job Search

Chapter 1: Assessing Your Skills, Abilities, and Goals	3
Exercises for Self-Assessment	3
Career Assessment Instruments	14
You Are Not Alone	20
Support for Continuing Your Education	20
Chapter 2: Exploring Careers	23
Targeting Specific Occupations to Research	24
Sources of Information	26
Starting Your Own Business	36
Evaluating the Possibilities	37
Chapter 3: More Preparation: Practical Work Experience, Assertiveness Training, and Public Speaking Skills	39
Experiential Education	39
Assertiveness	43
Public Speaking	48

Part II: Marketing Yourself to Potential Employers

Chapter 4: Creating Your Resume	53
Dissecting the Resume	54
What Shouldn't Go on Your Resume?	83
Scannable Resumes	84
Resume Aesthetics	85
Resumes and the Internet	87

Chapter 5: Writing a Great Cover Letter	89
Getting Started with Contact Info	89
Answer Three Important Questions	90
Finishing the Letter	95
Format Tips	95
Sample Cover Letters for Different Situations	95
Online Cover Letter Help	106

Part III: Applying and Interviewing for Jobs

Chapter 6: Networking and Mentors	109
Networking—a Numbers Game	110
Establishing a Network	111
Finding a Mentor	122
Chapter 7: Other Ways to Generate Job Leads	127
Using the Newspaper to Find Leads	127
Employment Agencies	130
U.S. Department of Labor	132
College Career Centers	132
State Vocational Rehabilitation Offices	133
Business Leadership Network	133
Internet Leads	133
Trade Publications	137
Chapter 8: Managing Your Job Search	139
Tracking Contacts	139
Time Management	140
Chapter 9: Applying for Jobs	155
Networking	155
Sending a Resume and Cover Letter	156
Applying Online	157
Filling Out a Written Application Form	157
Improving Your Chances of Getting the Job	159

Chapter 10: Preparing for the Interview	161
Doing Your Research	162
Accessibility Issues	167
Rehearsing for the Interview	169
Disclosing Your Disability	171
Interviewing Styles	185
The Day of the Interview	188
Second Interviews	191
Some Online Interviewing Resources	195
Chapter 11: After the Interview	197
Writing Thank-You Letters	197
Following Up Via the Phone	201
Sometimes You're the Windshield; Sometimes You're the Bug: Handling Rejection	202
The Uneven Playing Field	205
Negotiating the Offer	216
 Part IV: Succeeding at Work
Chapter 12: Keeping the Job	225
Having the Right Attitude	226
Succeeding at Office Politics	227
Looking for Projects	230
Fitting In and Succeeding with a Disability	232
Normalizing Your Disability for Your Peers and Coworkers	232
Being Ready for the Next Opportunity When It Presents Itself	234
Knowing How to Handle Changes in Insurance	235
Chapter 13: Accommodating Your Disability on the Job	237
Real-Life Sample Accommodations	238
Sample Disability-Specific Accommodations from the Job Accommodation Network	242
Appendix: Job Links from the U.S. Department of Labor Office of Disability Employment Policy	253
 Index	 267